Opting Out of Photography or Filming

We respect the privacy of all patrons and participants. If you do not wish to be photographed or filmed, you can take one of the following steps:

1. Register your request at the Show Secretary's Office.
2. Collect and wear a [coloured wristband / opt-out sticker] so our photographers and media team can identify and respect your preference.
3. Inform the official photographer or videographer directly at the time.
4. Avoid positioning yourself in designated media zones, main arenas, or winner's podiums where filming and photography are actively taking place.

Our team will make every reasonable effort to respect your request.

Photography of Minors

AgShows NSW and Bangalow A & I Society are committed to protecting the safety and privacy of children and young people. General event photography and videography may include minors in public spaces (e.g. crowd or competition shots). In these cases, formal written consent is not required; however, clear signage is displayed, and patrons may choose to opt out. Where a minor is the focus of a photograph or video — such as close-up portraits, interviews, promotional material, competition winners, or identifiable images — the written consent of a parent or legal guardian must be obtained prior to publication. Images of children will not be published with identifying personal information (such as full name, school, or hometown) without guardian consent. All volunteers and photographers must follow these guidelines to ensure child safety and privacy.

Special Consent for Featured Content

If you are being photographed or filmed for close-up portraits, interviews, or promotional features, our team may ask you to sign a separate Photography & Media Consent Form. This ensures clear, written permission before using identifiable images in featured content.
