Sift together the flours and spices Cream together the butter and sugar with the essences. Add the eggs one at a time, beating well after, each addition, then alternately add the fruit and flour mixtures. Mix thoroughly. The mixture should be stiff enough to support a wooden spoon. Place the mixture into a prepared square 20cm x 20cm (8" x 8") tin and bake in a slow oven for approximately 3 ½ - 4 hours. Allow the cake to cool in the tin. NOTE: To ensure uniformity and depending upon the size it is suggested the raisins be snipped into 2 -3 pieces, cherries into 4-6 pieces and almonds crosswise into 3-4 pieces.

Prize money is sponsored by the Ag Shows NSW. Winners at country shows will each receive a cash prize of $25 and will be required to bake a second "Rich Fruit Cake" in order to compete in a Group Final to be conducted by each of the fourteen Groups of the Agricultural Societies Council of NSW. The fourteen winners at Group level will each receive a cash prize of $50 and are required to bake a third "Rich Fruit Cake" for the Final judging at the Royal Easter Show where the winner will receive a cash prize of $100.00.

NOTE: In any year an individual competitor may participate in only one Group Final representing a Show Society and, consequently, may represent only one group. Bangalow winner will be required to have their second cake available for Group Judging in Lismore late November (exact date TBA)

"A true story, or so I'm told" By a Bangalow old-timer

At the Bangalow Show, a funny sight,
Some sheep broke free in the pale moonlight.
They wiggled and trotted, a woolly brigade,
To the roller coaster, unafraid!

Baa-ing with glee, they took their seats,
A thrilling ride, oh what a treat!
The sheep spun round, a dizzy flight,
Laughing and bleating in sheer delight.

They tried the Ferris wheel, high and grand,
Looking down on the sleeping land.
Then to the dodgems, with a mighty bash,
Causing a comical, fluffy crash!

The showman woke, with a startled shout,
"Ah, those sheep are out again, no doubt!"
But the sheep just smiled, with woolly cheer,
The best night ever, banishing fear!

The Show Pony

by Dave Copeland

(Local legend & Grand Champion Exhibitor – The Written Word 2023)

As the weather warms up it's that time of the year
The Showgrounds spruced up, and the sky's looking clear
I've been waiting all year, and I can't wait to go
Roll on up! Come on in! It's the Bangalow Show!

It's been going for yonks, well whilst I've been alive
For a century and twenty and then you add five
That's One-Twenty-Five with a capital 'O'
It might go on forever the Bangalow Show

Through the A and I Hall full of photos and flowers
Jammed with jams, cakes and pickles, I could've spent hours
It was making me hungry and no-one said "No!"
So, I had a quick bite from the Tart of the Show

The poultry then next and the winner (no luck)
Was a new kind of breed - yes a hybrid chook-duck
It was entered unnamed so they just called it 'Chuck'
And it couldn't quite quack but could certainly cluck

Then to the ring, there was lawnmower racing

The Ironmen were ironing from the view I was facing

And just over there were the dogs jumping high

The winner this year, well, its nose scraped the sky

A showbag or two, geez I gobbled them up

A Dagwood Dog then, and a quick Pluto Pup

Some fairy floss too and a quick ginger beer

The Bush Poets next, you don't know what you'll hear

Then onto the rides, the Dodgems, The Zipper

A Carousel then, and geez - that was a ripper!

And lastly the Cha Cha, it just can't be beaten

I recommend though, not to ride if you've eaten!

To round out the day, and it's always on last

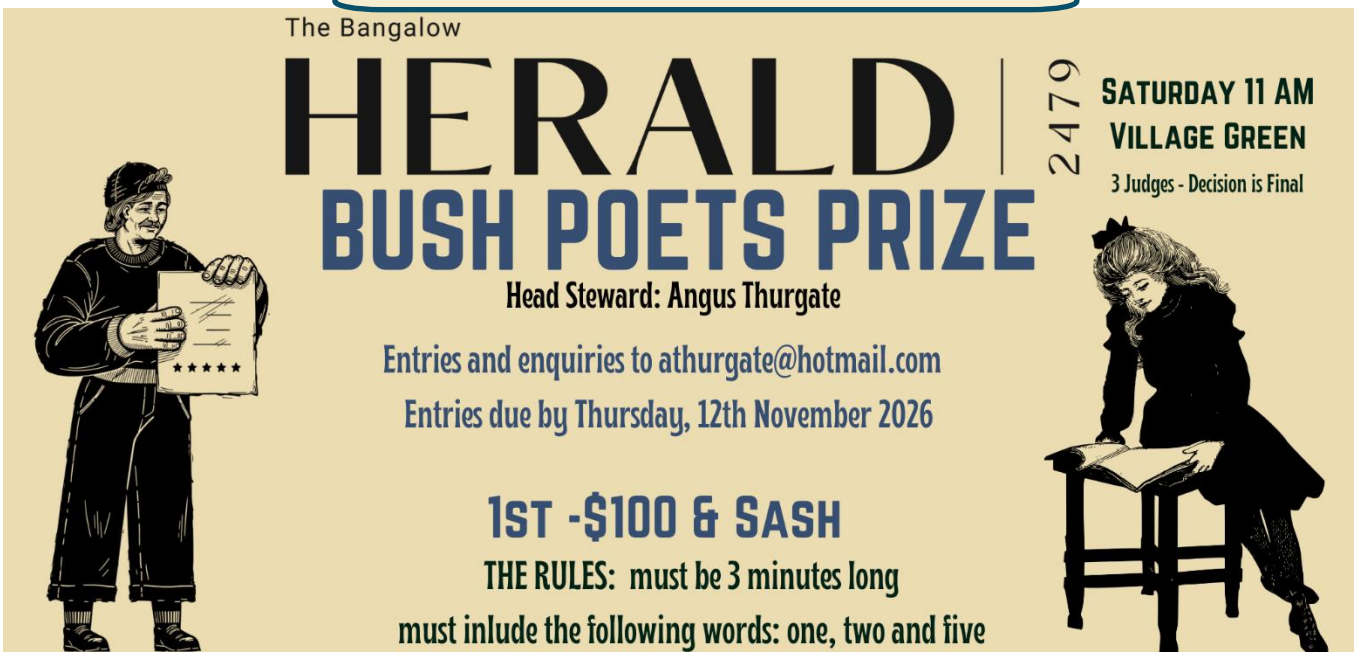

The fireworks show and it's always a blast

The booms and the bangs as it lights up the sky

And sends us all home on a guaranteed high!
